Constitution.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, In the Providence of God, victory having crowned the forces of the United States of America, in upholding the principles of the Nation against Great Britain in the conflict known as the War of 1812; we, the survivors and descendants of those who participated in that contest, have joined together to perpetuate its memories and victories, to collect and secure for preservation, rolls, records, books and other documents relating to that period; to encourage research and publication of historical data, including memorials of patriots of that era in our National history; to care for and, when necessary, assist in hurying actual veterans of that struggle; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and foster true patriotism and love of country.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This Society shall be known as the "General Society of the War of 1812."

ARTICLE II.

ORGANIZATION.

The General Society shall be composed of State Societies, which shall meet annually, on the day appointed therefor in their respective by-laws, and oftener if they shall deem it necessary.

The State Societies shall choose annually such officers for their own government and in such manner as shall be set forth in their respective by-laws, and shall transmit annually to the General Society a list of the officers so chosen for the year and such other information as may be of interest to the Society at large. Each State Society shall conform in the character of its officials to those of the General Society, and shall regulate all matters respecting its own affairs, and shall judge of the qualifications of members therein. Provided always, That the action of such State Society be, in all cases, in conformity with the provisions of this Constitution.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The officers of the General Society shall consist of a President General, a Vice-President General for each State Society represented, a Secretary General and Assistant Secretary General, a Treasurer General and Assistant Treasurer General, a Registrar General, a Surgeon General, a Judge Advocate General and a Chaplain General. They shall be chosen by ballot at the regular meeting of the Society, by and from members in good standing, and shall serve until the next regular meeting or until their successors are duly chosen.

There shall be an Executive Committee, consisting of the officers of the General Society and a delegate from each State Society, to be chosen by ballot at the regular meeting of the General Society, upon selection by the respective State delegation hereinafter provided for. It shall be the duty of said Committee, nine (9) members of which shall constitute a quorum, to supervise the affairs of the General Society, as well as the admission of State Societies, and transact such other business as may come before it. The said Committee shall meet in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, once in every six (6) months, during the time intervening between the meetings, and subject to the approval, of the General Society.

ARTICLE IV.

MEETINGS.

The regular meeting of the General Society shall be held every second year, on or about the nineteenth day of June, being the anniversary of the declaration of war by the United States against Great Britain, and special meetings may be held upon the order of the President General, or upon the request of two (2) State Societies.

Such meetings shall consist of the officers of the General Society, each of whom shall be entitled to one vote and a representation not exceeding five (5) delegates from each State Society (one of whom shall be the delegate to the Executive Committee of the General Society), which representation from each State Society shall be entitled to five (5) votes.

At each meeting of the General Society, the time and place of which shall have been determined upon at the preceding meeting of the Society, the circular letters and other communications sent by the State Societies shall be considered, and where questions in dispute may be referred to it, the General Society shall have power to act thereon.

ARTICLE V.

FORMATION OF STATE SOCIETIES.

The General Society shall be located in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania.

The Executive Committee thereof shall have the right at any of its meetings to warrant, constitute and recognize one State Society in any State or Territory of the United States, whenever ten (10) or more persons, who are already members or are eligible to membership in this Society, and residing in said State or Territory, shall apply for authority to organize such Society, or where such Society may already be formed and is approved by this Society.

The style and title of each State Society shall be as follows: "The Society of the War of 1812, in the State of....."

The members of each such State Society shall be borne upon the membership roll of the General Society.

ARTICLE VI.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one (21) years, who participated in, or who is a lineal descendant of one who served during the War of 1812, in the army, navy, revenue-marine or privateer service of the United States, offering proof thereof satisfactory to the State Society to which he may make application for membership, and who is of good moral character and reputation, may become a member of this Society when approved of by said State Society, under such regulations as it may make for passing upon applications for membership.

In case of the failure of lineal descendants of an actual participant in the War on behalf of the United States, one collateral descendant, who is deemed worthy, may be admitted to represent the said participant.

Every application for membership shall be made in writing, upon such form as may be set forth by this Society for that purpose, which application shall be made in duplicate, and one copy thereof filed in the archives of the General Society.

ARTICLE VII.

TRANSMISSION OF LISTS OF MEMBERS AND DUES FROM STATE SOCIETIES.

The Secretary of each State Society shall transmit to the Secretary of the General Society a list of the members thereof, together with a list of those from whom said members derive claim to membership, and thereafter, upon the admission of additional members, the Secretary thereof shall transmit to the General Society such similar information respecting said members.

Each State Society shall pay into the treasury of this Society an entrance fee of ten dollars, and remit annually thereafter the sum of twenty-five cents for each and every member in good standing on the rolls of such State Society, so reported on January first of each year.

ARTICLE VIII.

INSIGNIA.

The insignia of the Society shall consist of a badge of gold, pendant from a ribbon. Said badge shall be in the form of a Maltese cross (emblematic of faith in the justice of our cause), between four (4) golden eagles (symbolizing the four sections—north, south, east and west of our common country), and resting upon an anchor of gold (representative of the American navy, by which so many glorious victories of the War of 1812 were achieved). The arms of the cross to be enameled in scarlet with a white border and to bear the insignia, in gold, of the four (4) arms of service (infantry, cavalry, artillery and naval), and in the centre thereof a medallion of dark blue enamel, with the figures 1812 thereon in gold, surrounded by a band of black enamel, bearing eighteen (18) stars in gold, representing the number of States of the Union during the period of conflict. The reverse of said insignia to bear in the centre of the cross a wreath of oak leaves in gold, one-half inch in diameter, surrounded by rays, and in conformity with the design submitted to the General Society. The anchor and cross to be suspended from the ribbon by a ring of gold.

The ribbon shall be of watered silk, dark blue in the centre, with white and black stripes on the sides successively, and edged with scarlet; the entire ribbon to be one and one-half inches in width and the same dimensions in displayed length.

The insignia shall be worn on the left breast by the members of the Society at all general meetings, on all occasions of ceremony, or when they shall assemble for any stated purpose or celebration. On all other occasions, other than those specified above, members may wear a rosette of the prescribed ribbon and pattern in the upper buttonhole of the left lapel of the coat, which rosettes, like the insignia, shall be procured and issued by the Secretary General of the Society, by whom a record of all such issues to members will be kept. The insignia shall never be worn as an article of jewelry or ornament, and should be returned to the Society on the resignation or expulsion of a member, but otherwise it shall be deemed an heirloom.

The custodian of the insignia shall be the Secretary General, who shall issue the same to members of the State Societies under such rules as may be formulated by the General Society.

ARTICLE IX.

SEAL.

The seal of the Society shall be two and one-half inches in diameter, and shall consist of an eagle displayed in the centre of the seal, holding in his talons the American flag of the period (of fifteen stars), with rays of a rising sun above, and wreaths of oak and laurel (emblematic of the valor and victory of our soldiers and sailors), with trophies of cannon, musket, sword and anchor, below. The motto of the Society, "For Our Country's Rights," to be placed above the sun's rays in small Roman capital letters, and the whole to be encircled with a ribbon one-fourth of an inch wide, bearing, in plain Roman capital letters, the legend, "General Society of the War of 1812. Founded 1814." The seal to be in conformity with the design submitted to the General Society.

The Secretary General shall be the custodian of the seal, which shall be used only for the purposes designated by the Society.

ARTICLE X.

CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP.

Each member of the Society shall be entitled to a certificate of membership, which shall be signed by the President, Secretary and Registrar of the State Society to which he may belong, as well as by the President General, Secretary General and Registrar General of the General Society, and to which the seal of the Society shall be affixed.

The form shall be as follows:

ADDENDA.

In Memoriam.

Thomas Morgan Sturtevant, the last living citizen of the State of New Jersey who served in the second war with Great Britain, departed this life on September 26, 1896, in the ninety-second year of his age.

He enlisted as a Private, when only thirteen years of age, in Captain George Ashbridge's Company of New York State Militia, which was raised in New York City, and placed in charge of a block-house upon what is now the south-western ridge of Greenwood Cemetery, L. I., where it slopes toward the Bay.

Mr. Sturtevant was honorably discharged from the service of the United States, April 14, 1814. He had been a member of the General Society of the War of 1812, from the time of its foundation in 1814, until his decease.

ACT OF CONGRESS

Relating to the Insignia of Military Societies, with Decisions of the Secretary of War thereon.

JOINT RESOLUTION granting permission to officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy of the United States to wear the badges adopted by Military Societies of men who served in the War of the Revolution, the War of Eighteen Hundred and Twelve, the Mexican War, and the War of the Rebellion.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the distinctive badges adopted by Military Societies of men who served in the Armies and Navies of the United States in the War of the Revolution, the War of Eighteen Hundred and Twelve, the Mexican War, and the War of the Rebellion, respectively, may be worn upon all occasions of ceremony* by officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy of the United States who are members of said organizations in their own right.

Approved, September 25, 1890.

Decision of Acting Secretary of War, April 25, 1891.

Officers of the Army who are members by inheritance of any of the Societies referred to in the act of September 25, 1890, published in General Orders, No. 133, of November 18, 1890, from this office, are entitled to wear the badges adopted by such Societies on occasions of ceremony.* (Circular No. 4, Head Qrs. of the Army, A. G. O., Washington, May 9, 1891.)

(Extract.)

* * * * * * * * * * * *

*In compliance with the above Joint Resolution of Congress, * * the phrase "occasions of ceremony," in the resolution, will include all musters, reviews, inspections, parades and other occasions on which officers and men are required to appear in full-dress uniform.

The badges are to be worn on the left breast of the coat, the tops of the ribbons forming a horizontal line, the outer end of which shall be from two to four inches (according to the height of the wearer), below the upper line of the shoulder.

The ribbons are to be suspended from a bar of metal passed through their upper ends and attached to the coat. (General Orders, No. 133, Head Qrs. of the Army, A. G. O., Washington, November 18, 1890.)
